

Nene Valley Country Park

A successful posh picnic and bbq was superbly organised by Sally Fagan #52049 on Sunday 17th and enjoyed by everyone who attended. The day rounded off under clear blue skies and a jam and cream scone tea. There will be a full run down in the next magazine.

Staffordshire weekend 12 -14 September

Last minute bookings available for the slightly potty weekend in the green and leafy Staffordshire countryside including the famous Gladstone Industrial Heritage Pottery Museum, a CAMRA tour and black tie dinner. Easy to get to just off the M6 J14, part weekend options available. Click Image.

Phoenix Tale - JCIUK National Convention 14-16 November

Although the Saturday Senate programme is being finalised, the convention will be based at the Museum of London Docklands and the recommended hotel is the Marriott North Quay where the Senate breakfast will be held. Click here for booking and details which will always be updated whenever new details are available - keep checking!

25 Top Tips

Senators Sofie Sandell #70055 and Marco van den Heuval #70324 have published 25 Top Tips on how to organise a successful event in JCI. Read it here.

JCIUK July newsletter

If you missed Kate Senters last JCIUK update you will find it here.

Drumming Out 2015

The latest news is that the Thursday night panto is a fresh telling of the traditional tale of Aladdin by Ben Crocker, featuring a feisty Kung Fu fighting princess and a deranged, slightly psychotic, panda named Tyson. Find out more here

JCI Peace Conference

JCI London are organising a Peace conference and a flashmob dance in Trafalgar Square on 21 September. Senators have been asked to help by attending the event and promoting it to others. Click here for more details.

Diary Dates

Click Here for future Senate events including further International dates for 2015 & 2016